TOWN COUNCIL REORGANIZES; NOT A SCRATCH ON THE SLATE.

Republican Administration Continues in Power to Carry On Good Work It Has Started.

ONLY ONE CHANCE IS MADE

Officer Barthold Rottler Fails for Re-election to the Police Force—No Change in Borough Solicitors—Some Opposition, Not Much.

Town Council reorganized last night The Republican organization remains solid as a rock. The same 12 members who organized the body last year voted in a unit at last night's meeting and by their votes gave evidence of their confidence in the conduct of municipal affairs by electing again the same officers. The opposition was desultory in nature. Clair Stillwagon, admittedly one of the shrewdest leaders that ever sat in Council, is no more, and his mantle fell upon the broad shoulders of his Third ward colleague, William McCormick. McCormick mustered nine votes as the best record of the evening. Other times his supporters could pull only five. The number varied. Several times there was no opposition. If there were any spectators who expected the Democrats to pull off something they were sadly disappointed. Nothing happened save a little talk.

It took but a few minutes for the old Council to get through its business. Clerk A. O. Bixler read the minutes. Referring to the wordy conflict of the last meeting, when Councilman William McCormick engaged in wordy battle with Councilmen Brennan and Friel, Clerk Bixler writes that the debate was "mixed with a little harsh feeling."

As aforesaid, the organization slate wasn't even scratched. The Republican organization organized just as it intended to, despite feeble efforts on the part of the opposition to block the plan.

No sooner had the old Council adjourned sine die and gone into history than Councilman James B. Millard left the rostrum. John F. Kooser, the majority whip, called for nominations for temporary chairman and the names of Frank Friel and W. A. Bishop were submitted. Mr. Friel was elected by a strict organization vote. Councilman H. C. Hayes was nominated for temporary secretary. Floor Leader McCormick of the minority suggested A. O. Bixler but Temporary Chairman Friel ruled that no one not a member of Council could be nominated. Hayes was elected. There were 12 votes for him. Councilman Kooser then nominated James B. Millard President of Council. McCormick suggested W. A. Bishop. The vote, a rising one, was 12 to 9 for Millard. Those voting for Millard were John F. Kooser, T. J. Brennan, Frank Friel, C. M. Stoner, H. C. Hayes, W. P. Clark, S. P. Hay, John T. Hetzel, S. E. Brant, E. U. Hotzel, W. H. Thomas and J. B. Millard. Those who rose to Bishop's name were William McCormick, J. F. Reynolds, James M. Marietta, Matthew Crowley, H. L. Berg, P. M. Buttermore, Solomon Lepley, Lazmar Stillwagon and W. A. Bishop.

President Millard took the chair and made a brief speech of acceptance stating he had tried to do his duty in the past and would endeavor to do so in the future.

A. O. Bixler was nominated for clerk of Council and elected by acclamation. Mr. Bixler thanked the members for electing him, stating that while the honor is not a high one, it is shown by their votes that they are favorable to him. "Should I fall or stumble I hope you will forgive me for it."

For Borough Treasurer, I. W. Rutter was re-elected by acclamation. The same honor was accorded Borough Engineer J. B. Hogg.

There was a division over the election of Borough Solicitors. The Republicans nominated the same solicitors, S. Ray Shelby and J. Kirk Renner. McCormick suggested Higbee and Renner. Thirteen votes were announced for Shelby and Renner and seven for Higbee and Renner. A. J. Buttermore was unanimously chosen Borough Electrician. Mrs. Ella Decker was re-elected Janitress by acclamation.

The present police force was placed in nomination with the exception of Officer Barthold Rottler. Councilman Lepley at this stage was seen to whisper to McCormick.

"Thunderation!" resounded the minority leader, "all the rest of them were home drunk last week. They know what's going on. It ain't only Rottler."

McCormick then announced that last week one policeman had to be taken home when drunk and that some time ago another one was arrested with a woman while on duty.

Mr. Lepley then arose to plead that such practices be discouraged. President Millard announced that such conduct will not be tolerated in the future. He stated that Officer Rottler was suspended for intemperance last week. He also declared that McCormick should have reported the case of the other officer.

McCormick had previously nominated Rottler for chief, also for patrolman. The list composed of George Hetzel, chief; and William Stoner, James Francis, George Francis, C. H. McCullough, Joseph O'Bryon, Thomas McDonald and P. M. Rulli, patrolmen, was elected, 12 to 9. On the vote for Rottler for patrolman, the former chief mustered only the votes of Councilmen McCormick, Marietta, Reynolds, Stillwagon, Berg, Buttermore, Bishop and Lepley.

The paid fire department members were re-elected without change. The solicitors' salary was again set at $100 per year. After President Millard announced the committees would be appointed later and calling attention to the regular meeting Thursday night, the body adjourned. It was in session only 30 minutes.

Police Force at Uniontown

There is a shortage of policemen in town today, no less than five of them being in Uniontown to testify before the Grand Jury. Burgess Evans is also at the county seat on the same business. Three policemen are left in town, Officer Thomas McDonald, who is acting chief, Officer William Stoner, who is keeping the West Side from slipping out into Dunbar township, while no one is looking, and Officer Joseph O'Bryon, who is on night duty across the river, and is off duty.

Acting Chief McDonald delegated Clerk Bixler to hold down Brimstone Corner today but the wind was so strong the squire decided to fill the role of desk sergeant.

Concrete Outfit Came Yesterday

One of the three concrete outfits to be started at work on the abutments for the Western Maryland railroad in the Herd bottom arrived yesterday for the Hill Construction Company and is being erected today. The other two outfits will be delivered within the next two weeks.

The steam shovel which is to be worked within the borough on the West Side is on the siding in the rear of the West Penn car barns at Greenwood. Contractor Robert Hill consulted with West Penn officials today relative to moving the shovel across its property so that work may be started.

DUNBAR SUPERVISORS SET LOWEST MILLAGE.

Have Best Record of Fayette County, and Few If Any, Townships in State Can Beat It.

The Road Supervisors of Dunbar township met yesterday, reorganized, and set the tax millage for the coming year. The millage was established at 3½ mills, the lowest in Fayette county, and with possibly two or three exceptions, the lowest in the State. The board organized as follows: President, William Jacobs, Secretary, Joseph B. Stoner, Treasurer, Thomas Kerns. Mr. Jacobs looks after the mountain roads in the south and east portion of the township. Kerns has the Leisenring district and Stoner the Dickerson Run neighborhood.

Dunbar township has 143 miles of road, one section of State road and applications pending for two more sections. One of these is for the road from the West Side toward Uniontown, to the township line, and the other from Logan's Crossing to Dunbar. In their present condition it costs $15,000 a year to maintain the township roads and they are as good as any in the county.

President Jacobs is the only Republican elected to the board in many years. He has made good an the confidence of his colleagues is shown by his selection as president. He was elected over John L. Keffer two years ago.

W. S. DEFFENBAUGH WILL LEAVE HERE.

Is Unanimously Elected Superintendent of Homestead Schools.

SEVERAL BOOMS LAUNCHED

Already members of the School Board are looking over the field for possible successors to Borough Superintendent W. S. Deffenbaugh, who was elected last night by the Homestead School Board to be superintendent of the schools there at a salary of $2,400 a year. It is generally conceded that the board here is not in a position to increase Superintendent Deffenbaugh's salary to an amount sufficient to induce him to remain. Besides it is acknowledged that Mr. Deffenbaugh is destined to rise higher in the profession and to continue him here would be only to put off the inevitable.

The School Directors discussed the matter today, informally. There was no caucus, but wherever two or more directors met they immediately opened the subject of securing a new superintendent. Several boomlets were launched but whether they get beyond the "among those mentioned" stage remains to be seen.

The sentiment of many members of the board seems to favor the selection of a college graduate who has had experience as a superintendent of schools in some other community. It is certain some of the present teachers will be suggested. Members of the board state there is good material in High School and Prof. Bela H. Smith's name is prominently mentioned. Mr. Smith is a college graduate and has made good as a teacher in the High School. He is aggressive, possesses excellent executive ability and is well liked in the community. Of the present teachers Mr. Smith is preeminently fitted for the position. Whether he would fill the position of superintendent of schools as well as a High School teacher can only be determined by experience but his friends are firm in their belief that he would make a splendid man.

It is likely that Principal George H. Bell of the South Side will be a candidate. His name is mentioned in connection with the proposition. Prof. Bell was a candidate against Mr. Deffenbaugh three years ago and the principal opposition against him then was the fact that he is not a college graduate. Mr. Bell has made good as a ward principal.

The present "regulars" of the School Board have been strong for out of town talent in the past and it is probable that the same policy will prevail in selecting Mr. Colbaugh's successor.

Superintendent Defenbaugh this morning tendered his resignation to President G. W. Gallagher of the School Board. The resignation becomes effective March 31. Mr. Deffenbaugh will report at Homestead to take charge of the schools there April 1. The Homestead schools have been without a head for over a month and the directors urged Mr. Deffenbaugh to come as soon as possible.

BOTTLED MILK BEING AGITATED.

THE QUESTION OF GEOGRAPHY

Customers First in Route Get All the Cream, Leaving Skimmed Milk for Last Customers Reached—Council May Be Asked For Ordinance.

The Board of Health wants dairymen to abandon their tin cans and deliver all milk in bottles. This was the principal business transacted at yesterday's regular monthly meeting. The dairymen will be requested to adopt the use of bottles and if they decline Council will be asked to pass an ordinance requiring them to do so.

It is argued that when milk is delivered in a tin receptacle, from which the quantity of milk desired is poured into some vessel supplies by the consumer, the customers reached first get the rich milk while those last to be served get only the skimmed article.

When the matter was discussed by the board yesterday Secretary A. B. Hood raised the question whether the milkmen would not seize upon this requirement as an excuse for raising the price of the lactal fluid. The members of the board did not think so. Mr. Hood stated he did not believe an increase for this reason would be justified, but it might be attempted.

It was pointed out that delivering milk in bottles would be more sanitary than under the present method. Cans are in danger of rusting and apt to infect the milk with poisonous substances. Washing the bottles and filling them would entail but little additional labor, the Health Board claims.

Already two milk dealers in Connellsville have adopted the method of delivering bottled milk and find it more satisfactory than the old method. Each measure is assured, giving a fair deal to both seller and consumer.

THE SCHOOL BOARD ACCEPTS BUILDING.

Fayette Lumber Company Paid Balance on Contract.

SEVERAL DIRECTORS OBJECTED

And Wanted a Committee to Investigate Appointed, But They Were Voted Down by a Large Majority. Statement of Director C. H. Balsley.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held last evening in the High School building. Practically the only features were the amendments against the passing or approval of the new High School addition, both of which were defeated.

Members present besides President G. W. Gallagher were: Rose, White, Hart, Mason, Fornwalt, Balsley, Metzgar, Smith, Norton, Armstrong, R. O. Thomas, Buttermore, Darr, B. J. Thomas, Hayes and Scott.

Secretary Bert J. Thomas read the following report of the treasurer which was approved: General fund, $13,628.22; building fund, $1,981.13; sinking fund, $2,102.27; special High School fund, $5,431.21; total, $21,145.86.

Directors Hart, Balsley, and Fornwalt all reported the repairing of flag poles at their respective schools. Director Armstrong made a motion to pay the architect's certificate of $9,188.42, produced by Secretary Thomas, on the new addition to the High School Before President Gallagher could put the question, Director Hart was on his feet. He stated that in view of the fact that it had been publicly asserted that the contractors and architects had not lived up to the specifications for the new building, he would amend the motion and move that a committee of three be appointed to go over the building and see if the plans had been complied with, the committee to be composed of thoroughly competent builders or inspectors. This he said was out of justice both to the people and to the contractors. His motion for the amendment was seconded by Director Darr, but was lost by a large majority. The original motion carried.

Director Balsley stated this morning that Director Hart had gone to President Gallagher before the meeting of last night and in view of President Gallagher's position as a member of the Federated Bible classes of Connellsville declaring for conscientious duty on the part of public officials suggested that he give Director Balsley a chance to prove his charges concerning the new High School addition. President Gallagher refused to listen to the proposition for the appointment of a committee. He told Director Hart that Director Balsley's motives were not fair and honest. Hart asked him if Balsley was able to show him that what he said concerning the High School was true would he appoint the committee asked for. President Gallagher said he would not, according to the statement of Director Balsley.

Director Balsley stated that his opposition to certain transactions of the School Board relating to the High School addition has at all times been fair and honest. He says that all charges concerning the new High School have been mercilessly steam rollered by President Gallagher, and the majority in control of the Board without proper hearing. The payment of the architects' certificate of $9,188 last night was the balance due the Fayette Lumber Company on their contract.

R. O. Thomas, chairman of the special reception committee, appointed for the opening of the new addition, tendered two bills that had been in-

The Levys Go Into Bankruptcy

Having been forced out of their present location in the Weihe building on Main street, Levy Brothers, proprietors of The Fair Store, have been compelled to go into bankruptcy. They were unable to secure another location and as their lease expires in the near future, are compelled to go out of business. For some years past Levy Brothers have conducted the Fair store. With the expiration of their lease approaching, they began negotiations for a renewal.

Without notice, or a chance to come to terms, they state, the owners of the building are said to have leased the store room to the Chicago Dairy Company and notified the Levys to that effect.

Caught unawares and involved financially, the firm was compelled to go into bankruptcy. Had the lease been renewed and their present location retained there is no question, the Levys state, of their ability to have met all outstanding obligations.

Bill in Equity Against Coke Co.

A printed bill in equity was filed by Arthur E. Ghrist against the Champion Connellsville Coke Company this morning at Uniontown, and upon presentation to Judge R. E. Umbel at Chambers he granted a rule on the defendant to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be granted restraining employes and agents of the defendant company from digging drains and ditches and turning water from the defendant company's mine into that of the plaintiff at South Brownsville. George Wolford and Annie E. Miller, Mary Miller, Oliver Miller, William Miller, Fannie S. Miller, Sarah Gorley and Emma Higinbotham, widow and heirs of the late Oliver Miller, are also named as defendants. Attorneys Johnson and Rush represent the plaintiff.

The plaintiff owns 25 acres of coal at South Brownsville and has a mine opened. His coal adjoins that of the defendant. He claims the defendant company has cut through to his mine and has drained water into his mine. He asks for a permanent injunction.

To Raise Bridge at Dickerson Run

There is a rumor that the bridge at Dickerson Run over the Yough river will be raised. This will be an improvement to both Dawson and Dickerson Run. The bridge, according to report, will be raised at least 10 feet at the Dawson side of the river and 25 feet on the Dickerson Run side. This will make a natural grade from the B. & O. crossing in Dawson to the top of Liberty hill. There will be a viaduct from the new town, known as Greater Dickerson Run to the end of the bridge on Liberty hill. Then the State road will go to the freight house at Dickerson Run and to J. H. Reed's planing mills. The street car company can run to the end of the bridge and discharge passengers.

This would be a big help to Dawson and Dickerson Run.

Quick Run by Fire Wagon

A small fire in the home of J. C. Lytle on Fairview avenue brought out the department this morning. Trouble with a gas stove resulted in the dining room carpet being slightly scorched.

The fire department made a quick run to the scene. It was just 35 seconds after the first tap of the gong on Brimstone Corner that the wagon turned into Pittsburg street from the fire house.

Before they got there Mrs. A. Alguire of East Fairview avenue put the fire out.

Mrs. Mamie O'Neil Is the Defendant and Mrs. Rosie M. Humbert the Prosecutor—Was Interesting to the Court Room Spectators.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, March 7.—Considerable interest was shown by the spectators this morning in the large court room in the slander suit of Mrs. Rosie M. Humbert against Mrs. Mamie O'Neil. Judge J. Q. VanSwearingen is presiding. Attorney George Patterson is fighting the case for the plaintiff. Opposing him is Lawyer W. C. McKean. This is the first case in which these two men have fought together since the famous Smith murder case, which it will be remembered was a battle of wits.

Mrs. Humbert alleges that the defendant charged her with having improper relations with a colored porter in Dunbar. The parties involved all reside at Ferguson, above Dunbar.

The plaintiff took the stand in her own behalf and told of the incidents that led up to the charges which were made in 1908. She overheard Mrs. O'Neil tell her sister that she was guilty of misconduct, whereupon she demanded to know the origin of such a statement. "My husband heard it in Dunbar and I can prove it by four or five witnesses," Mrs. O'Neil is said to have replied.

A number of witnesses were called on the plaintiff's side of the case during the morning session, mostly relatives. Mrs. Grace McClain and Mrs. Lucy Beals, sisters, told practically the same story as their sister.

It was to Mrs. McClain that Mrs. O'Neil made the statement. Mrs. Beals added to her testimony that the defendant had charged her sister with murdering children in Dunbar. She concluded by saying it was alleged by Mrs. O'Neil that it was necessary to lock the door in order to keep her father and the plaintiff's people away from each other.

Mrs. Sarah Holland, one of Mrs. Humebrt's witnesses, related her version of the trouble. It was much the same as already stated except that she told of hearing Mrs. Humbert "throw up the Hill Farm nigger" to Mrs. O'Neil. On cross examination by Attorney McKean she admitted that both women had expressed their private opinion of each other with the use of "vulgar" words.

For the defense, the star witness proved to be Mrs. Isaac Cole, a daughter of the defendant. Mrs. Cole was very well informed as to the different names each of the parties involved in the case had been called and she freely expressed them to the court and jury.

Her loud talking made every word audible in every part of the court room. Several times it was necessary to quiet the spectators. Officials about the court house say they have heard worse cases than that today but never heard one in which so many vulgar words were used. The defendant did not go on the stand herself. Mrs. Humbert sued to recover $2,000, to cover damages to her reputation.

A verdict for the efense was returned this afternoon.

Charles Kozell, a Pittsburg liquor dealer, entered a plea of guilty to selling liquor in Fayette county without a license and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve six months in the county jail. The sentence was imposed just before the close of court on Monday evening. Kozell was prosecuted by County Detective Frank McLaughlin.

Frank Wilson entered a plea of guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced to pay a fine of $75 and undergo imprisonment in the Allegheny workhouse for six months. A similar sentence was meted out to Peter Turak who pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons. County Detective Alex McBeth prosecuted both men.

George Tirnetski waived presentation of the bill to the grand jury and entered a plea of guilty to carrying concealed weapons. He was prosecuted by County Detective Frank McLaughlin. Likewise, Morgan Paul who was prosecuted by J. W. Anderson on a charge of horse stealing entered a plea.

The court allowed a nol pros to be entered in the case of adultery charged against Mrs. Rafell Wills and also in the case of fornication charged against James Barnes. Barnes was prosecutor in the former case and Mrs. Hixon, prosecutrix in the latter.

U. S. TROOPS ARE RUSHED TO BORDER.

Government Mobilizing Armed Forces to Protect Citizens From Mexicans.

LIGHT ARTILERY IS SENT

In All Six Batteries Have Been Ordered Besides Regiments of Cavalry and Infantry—Will Make Invasion of Mexico.

United Press Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—Three batteries of artillery at Fort Meyer, Va., were ordered today to proceed immediately to the Mexican border in Texas.

The War Department is preparing information regarding bridge crossings, railroads, etc., in Mexico and it is rumored that troops may be sent across the border.

A frenzied appeal for troops to protect Americans doing reclamation work in the Imperial Valley in California from open robbery at the hands of Mexican vagrants has been received at the State Department.

Secret military information just received from Mexico caused the Secretary of War to admit today that he was ordering the mobilization of 6,000 troops on the border. The Eleventh cavalry, stationed at Oglethrope, Ga., the Seventeenth Infantry from Fort McPherson, near Atlanta, Ga., and three batteries from Fort Meyer are today preparing to start for the frontier.

Although the Secretary of War stated the troops were being assembled "for the purpose of maneuvers" he would make no denial of the intention to send them across the border into Mexico.

Orders have been issued for 15 regiments of infantry, four of cavalry, two of field artillery, two of coast artillery to take the field within the next five days. Four armored cruisers, the Washington, Tennessee, Montana and West Virginia, are ordered to steam to the Texas coast to co-operate with troops there.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, gave as an official explanation of the widespread movement of troops today that joint manoeuvres army and navy will be held at San Antonio, Texas, San Diego and San Pedro, California.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Mar. 7. The Fifteenth United States Infantry this morning received rush orders to hurry to the Mexican border. Arrangements were immediately made to start them south this afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 7.—The Thirtieth Infantry from the Presidio and the Eighth Infantry from Monterey, totally 1,250 men, were rushed to San Diego, near the Mexican border, today.

Freshmen Win Class Honors

The Freshmen won class honors in basketball last night by defeating the Sophmores 37 to 11. In the previous games they defeated the Seniors by a narrow margin. The Juniors are relegated to the foot of the ladder by virtue of their defeat at the hands of the Seniors by a 31-22 score. The Seniors are now anxious to play the Freshmen once more to settle the question of High School supremacy. When defeated by the Freshmen on a previous occasion they were without the services of Dilworth, one of their best players.

March Blizzard Smashes Fayette

A typical March blizzard raged throughout this afternoon. The gale started early this morning but soon after 1 o'clock hail and snow added its mite to the gale and as a consequence business was brought almost to a standstill. The streets are practically clear of people, as only those who have to be out ventured forth in the blizzard. The storm played havoc with the West Penn, affecting car schedules and the wires of the electric company.

A veering wind seemed to have brought with it the hail and sleet. This morning the wind was cold and raw. It came from the north. The worst of the gale this afternoon seemed to come from the southeast. On top of this is the morning weather report predicting "fair and probably showers."

In the mountains east of here the storm is raging with great violence and interfering with traffic on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. There is considerable wire trouble. The telephone companies are being hampered by the storm and many wires are down. The Tri-State lines in Uniontown are out but up to 3 o'clock this afternoon there was no trouble on the mountain line or the Pittsburg trunk lines.

There was not much snow with the storm. It was mostly hail and sleet, but it did not take long to cover the ground. Drifts formed quickly under the sweeping wind. Brimstone Corner and the corner of Pittsburg and Green streets saw the storm at its worst, although the path to the postoffice was far from comfortable. The day has been particularly bad for the merchants.

The Last Game of Girl Teams

Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Armory the first and second basketball teams composed of High School girls will meet for the last but time this season on a local floor.

First team, center, Elizabeth Gemmell; forwards, Mary Thomas and Julia Zimmerman; guards, Isabelle Connelly and Margaret Donnelly.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

HOW I WAS CURED OF SCROFULA

"I was in a very bad condition with scrofulous swellings round my neck. It started with a bunch on the side of my neck and it kept growing until the whole side of my face was swollen.

"I had tried everything in the shape of medicines for five years. I had gone under an operation in one of the hospitals in Boston and had them cut out. I had thirty little tubular glands taken from back of my ear down my shoulder. After the cuts healed over they started to come again and worse than before.

"After suffering so much I thought I would try Pinkham's Blood Purifier and before I had taken two bottles there was a great change in the swellings. I continued its use and to-day I am a well woman Every word of this is true.

The tendency to Scrofula seems to be hereditary and it is hard to overcome. It may lie dormant for years, and then break out anew from time to time.

The only known remedy for Scrofula is to keep the blood pure and rich by the use of a good blood purifier. It may require long treatment, but Mrs. Haynes found that Pinkham's Blood Purifier cured her of this dreadful disease, after all other means had failed.

Pinkham's Blood Purifier is equally as good for all diseases emanating from impure, impoverished blood, and is the best Spring medicine known. People will find the Blood Purifier just as reliable a remedy as the women of the world have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Unequalled — satisfying and dependable.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 7, 1911.

WILL CONTINUE TO GOVERN CONNELLSVILLE.

As predicted in The Courier yesterday, the organization of Town Council stood as firm as a rock notwithstanding some rather strenuous influences brought into play in an effort to break the phalanx.

It is even stated that Greeks from Athens on-the-Redstone bearing promises of a political nature were on the scene, but The Twelve were neither bribed nor cajoled. They stood fast for their own honor and the good government of Connellsville.

It is not claimed that The Twelve are apostles or saints. They are just honest citizens who have made an honest effort to govern Connellsville honestly, carefully and economically. Notwithstanding anything which has been said concerning them, or any of them, the fact remains that they have given us good government, and the citizens generally want them to continue on the job, at least until it comes to a choice of city officers.

In this line, it may be well to mention that the complaint about the police force should be promptly and rigidly investigated, and if well founded the guilty should be eliminated from the force. The administration boat cannot ride the waves of opposition with leaky or rotten timbers in her keel.

It may be well to remember, however, that the charges come from the opposition, and, instead of having been presented in proper time and place, were retained for the more spectacular effect of a political explosion. The prompt manner in which the charges were ordered investigated so muffled the report and dimmed the glare of this particular set piece of Democratic pyrotechnics as to completely spoil its fondly-hoped-for effect, and it fell flatter than a pancake in fly-time.

With apologies to the Greeks bearing imaginary gifts, with renewed pledges of allegiance to the people of Connellsville, with malice toward none and charity for all, the Republicans will continue to govern Connellsville.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS ABREAST OF THE TIMES.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania has not passed much legislation thus far this session, and thoughtless persons may assume that it has been an inattentive and indolent body. This would not be a righteous judgment. The Legislature has done a great deal of good work, but most of it has been of a routine character not calculated to provoke public comment.

Moreover, there are in preparation a number of bills, dealing with important public matters from the standpoint of advanced ideas, which will make the public sit up and take notice. The Republican party is usually conservative, but it never fails to be a few laps in advance of the best public opinion. That is one of the secrets of its success. The Democrats are fond of telling us that the Republican party is bossed. If so, it is well bossed. Better a well-bossed party than a mad, unreasonable mob of conflicting ambitions and impotent achievements. Both party and country are better off under such "bossism;" notwithstanding the academic discussions of theoretical editors and the demagogic utterances of disappointed politicians seeking new leases of political power.

Some of the legislation in process of incubation at Harrisburg is somewhat progressive in character, in spite of the fact that it is being prepared by statesmen frequently denounced as integral parts of a political machine. It is time the honest citizens of the commonwealth awoke to the fact that a political party is to be judged by its deeds and not by the denunciations of the opposition. The Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania must be judged by its record when that record is complete, and the Republican Governor of Pennsylvania must be judged by his record when that record is complete.

All will be so judged, and we will make the prediction that the judgment will be commendatory.

If the plan to stock the plains with wild animals from Africa is carried out, the Western ranchman will have a zoo at his own door.

WEST VIRGINIA CAN AFFORD TO PAY.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that West Virginia must settle with Virginia for its share of the family indebtedness at the time the Mountain State separated herself from the Mother State and set up in business for herself.

Fortunately for West Virginia she is better able to settle now than she ever was before, owing to the wonderful development of her large and rich natural resources, consisting of coal and coke, oil and gas.

When West Virginia tore herself loose from Virginia during the throes of the Civil War, the latter State gave consent, perhaps because Virginia did not want to be sullied with an anti-secession portion of its soil, and perhaps for the additional reason that West Virginia was not considered as being very productive or very valuable, much of it being wild and mountainous.

But that wild and mountainous portion proved to be immensely valuable in after years. Its mountains were covered with fine timber and its soil underlaid with the valuable products mentioned. In losing its territory west of the mountains, Virginia lost her greatest asset. Had the two States remained joined, Virginia would have been one of the great States of the Union today instead of occupying a place down the list.

Upon the whole, we think West Virginia can afford to pay.

THE PASSING OF A PUBLIC CONTROVERSY.

The meeting of the much-agitated School Board ended last evening in comparative peace if not in perfect harmony. Director Darr declined to deliver his philippic and Director Bailey offered no further objections to the final payment on the High School annex, though he has some explanations to offer through the press.

We print them as a matter of courtesy and justice, with the observation that we do not believe any of the criticism of the building was animated by improper motives, but only from a sincere desire to do a public duty. We may further remark that President Gallagher was entirely correct in his position when he refused to appoint a further committee of investigation. That was the province of the board alone.

The board has passed upon the matter as a whole. It is a whole that has passed. Better call it all the past.

The Uniontown Standard thinks Colonel Guffey ought to be retired from the leadership of the Democratic party and cast into the Waters of Oblivion, because throughout all his years of leadership the party has been in the minority. It has perhaps been no because of its Bryan handicap. The Colonel has tried to break away from that incubus, and he had his political back broken once in the getaway. Fortunately for him, it was soon mended by the merest political accident. Guessing, however, from the sentimental to the practical part of the argument, we see no Republican reason why Colonel Guffey should not continue to be the head of the Pennsylvania democracy.

The Senators who thought that President Taft had the backbone of a jellyfish are very busily engaged in revising their hasty opinions.

The Western Maryland and Lake Erie announcements concerning appropriations for West Side terminals will perhaps be more assuring of some of our good Connellsville citizens who have dripped great drops of doubt and gloomed gobs of black dispair.

It was Reciprocity or return, and that's the reason Congress comes back.

The Unofficial Organ now insists that the Western Maryland should have been obliged to pay Connellsville's water bill. So far as we can learn the Western Maryland has never been in the water business.

The Western Maryland has struck coal near Cheselman. The vein is not very thick, but it is big enough to help the contractor some.

The Steam Shovel is operating on the West Side and the Steam Roller made its appearance on the East Side last evening to the great disgust of the Tammany eachems.

Instant Relief for Indigestion 15c

Dyspepsia, Gas, Acid Stomach, Heartburn or any stomach ailment disappears as soon as a KEENE'S CHARCO-PEPSIC tablet is dissolved in your stomach!

Stomach specialists all over the world prescribe KEENE'S CHARCO-PEPSIC tablets because they are guaranteed to contain Willow Charcoal, Salt, Pepsin, Bismuth, Magnesia, Ginger and other valuable ingredients.

Your doctor recommends Keene's CHARCO-PEPSIC tablets because they keep your stomach in grand shape, no matter what ails you—dizziness, stomach headache, bad breath, sporty skin, lack of energy, blue discouraged feeling—all due to an out of order stomach.

Mrs. C. Ware, Hyde Park, N. Y., says: "The slightest thing upset my stomach. I dared not eat even fresh bread. I took one 15c box of your Charco-Pepsic tablets and now can eat pies, lobsters, pickles, hot rolls and the most indigestible food without the slightest discomfort."

You have never tried anything like them! It is the new stomach treatment adopted by the leading specialists. The charcoal filters the impurities from the blood and creates copious gastric juices, the Bismuth removes all extraneous coatings from the walls of the stomach, the Pepsin in each tablet will digest a meal, the Magnesia neutralizes the acid and has a mild laxative effect, and the Ginger acts as a fine tonic! Nothing harmful! Children can eat them by the dozen. Taste like candy!

15c and 25c per box at all druggists. Supplied FREE to hospitals, poor people and charitable institutions.

For this reason alone, a bottle of D. D. D. should be kept on hand in every household. A trial 25c bottle will show you the merits of this great remedy as a complexion wash.

We notice in The Herald's list of automobiles and their owners in Uniontown and surrounding towns that the names of several owned in Smithfield were omitted, namely, H. B. Sackett, two, a Buick and Ford; J. R. Smith, a Buick; B. Brady, Ford. The first auto ever owned in this community was owned by the late Charles A. Grannell, a Cleveland car, a Winton. There were but very few cars in the county at the time this was bought. Mr. Grannell and wife were on a visit in Ohio when he bought this car. He and his wife, C. D. Crow of this place and a mechanician from the factory came through from Cleveland here in it, making what was then considered good time, 20 some hours from Cleveland to Smithfield. They came through Uniontown which then had not an auto in it. The people swarmed around Morgan's Hotel where he put up, to see it and he spent nearly a day there to take the curious the first ride they ever had in an auto. That car is here now, dismantled in Mrs. C. A. Grannell's barn. It was all right for level roads or paved streets, but had not sufficient power to climb the heavy grades in this hilly country.

Miss Rene Sturgis was calling on relatives at Uniontown Sunday.

Thomas Howell and son, James, called on relatives at Fairchance Sunday.

Beh Smith of Nicholson was a borough visitor Monday morning.

A good roads meeting was called for Friday evening in the auditorium, but like the former meeting was doomed to failure owing to non-attendance. Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Henry Brent is Guilty of Murder

Special to The Courier.

SOMERSET, March 7.—Henry Brent, a negro of West Virginia, is on trial for his life here charged with the murder of Charles Langley, also a negro, at Husband on January 28. Brent was drinking in company with several other negroes and suddenly drew a revolver and shot Langley through the heart, also shooting and wounding Tom Anderson, another negro. Brent was arrested by the State constabulary and placed in jail here. He was sleeping in a shanty when arrested. Brent claims that he was intoxicated, had been drinking whiskey for two days and remembers nothing of the events of the day of the crime.

After being out only a few minutes last evening the jury returned a verdict of first degree murder.

"Your Promise to Pay is As Good As Gold"

curred, one of $15 from Prof. A. B. Morton for the music of the evening and another for printing. Both were later approved.

On motion of Director R. O. Thomas the Senior class was tendered a vote of thanks for the able manner in which they assisted at the public opening of the High School addition.

President Gallagher's call for the reports of those on the visiting committees brought forth but few real reports, though some good excuses were furnished. Director Fornwalt reported everything "O. K." at the South Side school. Charles Baisley stated that he had lacked the time to pay his visit, as did President Gallagher who had appointed himself to the Second ward building. A. W. Bishop was not notified of his appointment which accounted for another missing report.

Director Darr was mistaken in the school he was to visit and took the Seventh ward instead of the Sixth ward building. In this he said he found the ventilation and lighting bad, but though everything else in proper condition. He made mention of Miss Eagan's methods of teaching grammar and mathematics, and suggested that other members of the Board visit her class.

Clarence Hayes, who was appointed to the Seventh ward school, added that what Director Darr had stated was correct, especially the latter. The following visiting committees were appointed for the month of March: High School, Smith; Fourth ward, Mason; South Side, Scott; Second ward, Gallagher; Third ward, Buttermore; Sixth ward, Metzgar; Seventh ward, Armstrong.

Superintendent W. S. Deffenbaugh had placed all of his matters in the hands of the different committees. However, in reply to a question, he stated that there were about 2,700 visitors at the local schools on Patron's Day. Of these it is figured there were really only six or seven hundred different people, the former figures being made up of the number of people who visited each room.

Principal Bruce Cobaugh of the High School, wished to emphasize the fact that when the directors visit his building they find more interest in the building than in the teaching. His statement, he said, he wished to be taken as a criticism, as he thought it was deserving.

He asked that a committee be appointed to act with the High School committee in regard to the coming commencement, so that the acts will be official. The committee will look after the finances and audit the accounts. Directors Bishop, Thomas and Hart were appointed by President Gallagher.

Chris Colvin, janitor of the South Side school building, asked that he be recompensed for paying the help which he finds necessary to hire in order to complete his duties. This he says amounts to from seven to ten dollars a month and he has been paying the amounts himself so far. The matter was referred to the building committee for adjustment.

The tax assessment of Samuel Brooks, of the Third Ward, was reduced from the $100 or laborer rate, to that of an invalid, $25. Brooks had been before the County Commissioners and Secretary Thomas stated that he had seen his papers.

Prof. Jones of the Second Ward school, stated that several complaints had been made in regard to the lighting facilities in a number of his rooms. There are two 25 candle power lights he said which hung only 3½ feet from the heads of the children. It was recommended that he have them raised.

After Secretary Thomas had read the list of bills submitted, Director Darr moved to amend a motion to approve them as read, by not accepting that of McCollum & Dowler, the Pittsburg architects who furnished the plans for the new High School addition. This order was for their certificate in the sum of $9,188.12. The same voted for the amendment that answered for the Hart amendment earlier in the evening. A big majority voted against the motion and it was lost, the original motion to pay all bills as read being carried.

At the close of the meeting, President Gallagher gave Director Darr the chance to speak which he sought at the last meeting, to which this member replied, "I suppose that gives me a chance and I am very thankful for the hospitality you have extended to me, but I have nothing to say" The meeting then adjourned.

Levinson Moves on April 1st

M. H. Levinson, the well known North Pittsburg street clothier who has been in the clothing business in Connellsville for the past 22 years, has leased the store room to be vacated by E. W. Horner from Rockwell Marietta in the Marietta White Front, and will remove from his present location on or about April 1st, 1911, and expects to remodel the front and interior of the room. Mr. Levinson came to Connellsville in the year 1889 from Pittsburg and started business in New Haven, or what is now known as the West Side, and staid there four years, after which his business increased, and he removed to Connellsville and leased the Jennie Skinner building for a term of four years, and from there leased the room from J. Frew, Jr., and has been in the present location 11 years. Mr. Levinson has been successful in all his undertakings, and has always treated the public fair.

During the recent fire from the McCorey disaster Mr. Levinson's stock was damaged by smoke and water, but he has disposed of about all the stock, and will now carry a new and up-to-date line of men's, boys' and youths' clothing, shoes and furnishings. Mr. Levinson wishes to thank his many friends and patrons for their kind patronage to him during his successful business career and hopes to receive a continuance of the same, and invites the public one and all, to call and see him in his new place of business.

JUVENILE WILD WEST

Show at Uniontown That Ended With Usual Results.

UNIONTOWN, March 7.—Daniel Hunt, Herbert Miller and Charles Mestrezat, from 9 to 11 years of age, Sunday morning found three .38-calibre revolvers in the office of County Detective Alexander McBeth, and were reproducing a moving picture show they had seen. The show was broken up when young Hunt was shot in the right leg, receiving a slight flesh wound.

Two of the boys are nephews of Assistant District Attorney George Patterson, who has his office in the same room with Detective McBeth Sunday morning, the boys say, they went to the office to visit Attorney Patterson, and during his absence found the revolvers in an open desk drawer.

ANNUAL BUDGETS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Of Pittsburg & Lake Erie and the Western Maryland Railroads

FOR TERMINAL FACILITIES

And Other Improvements That Will Be Necessary When the Two Roads Are Joined on the West Side. Equipment Also to Be Ordered.

The annual budgets of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie and the Western Maryland railroads, will contain a large amount for terminals at Connellsville, and new equipment, preparatory to the early completion and opening of the line. There will be heavy track improvements on both sides of Connellsville. A large sum will probably be expended in the erection of repair shops and necessary buildings on a terminal.

Arrangements have already been made for the passenger station. The Pittsburg & Lake Erie and the Western Maryland have prepared to erect a $35,000 Union station in Connellsville. It is understood corresponding large amounts will be expended in the erection of a freight transfer station. The greater part of the expense at Connellsville, however, will fall on the Western Maryland. The P. & L. E. is well fixed in the matter of shops and roundhouses at its different terminals, and will not have to erect any more.

But as Connellsville will be the end of the Western Maryland, it will have to erect a large roundhouse, repair shops for both engines and cars, and establish a superintendent's office. It will also be necessary for the railroad to place heavy orders for both engines and cars to operate the new extension. It is in the market now for 500 50-ton steel hoppers, the heaviest made, and other heavy orders are expected to closely follow the placing of this one.

Service Medals For 10th Boys.

Colonel Richard Coulter and quite a number of his men of the "Fighting Tenth" regiment will receive badges shortly for their service in the Spanish-American War and the Philippine Insurrection.

An order from the headquarters of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg, was received at Greensburg by Col. Coulter on Monday announcing the issuing of 31 service badges by the War Department. The Tenth regiment will share well in the disposition of them

Besides the two late wars in which the Tenth figured, badges are being issued for the Civil, Indian, and China wars. In these, however, but one Tenth man is named, he being a Civil war veteran. Col. Richard Coulter, Major Henry Coulter, and a number of the other Tenth men will receive two badges. The service of the man awarded a badge is told by the striping on the bar from which the badge is suspended. A narrow striping of red, white and blue tells of Civil War service. CHAPTER III.

We had not gone fifty yards when a score of men, similarly encountered to my companions, rushed upon us. The struggle was short and sharp. I was unable to make any kind of resistance and was dragged from my horse and my hands tied securely behind me. O'Ryan and his men fought desperately, and for a few minutes the clash of steel woke the echoes of the wood. But numbers told. O'Ryan was knocked out of his saddle and was bound as I was, and three of his men were also taken prisoners. Six men lay dead, two of ours and four of the enemy, bearing terrible witness to the fact that the fight had been no child's play. It was my first experience of medieval warfare, but it was not destined to be my last.

"With luck we may get to heaven," O'Ryan whispered to me, "but I don't think we'll ever get to Yadasara. Prisoners of war get badly handled. We'd be better off lying with those poor devils yonder."

Surrounded on every side by mountains, twilight is of short duration in Drussenland. It was dark long before we came to our journey's end, and in spite of O'Ryan's gloomy forebodings I was not sorry to reach the rebel headquarters.

The rebel camp, which was set around a good sized town, called Meera, I learned later, lay between two spurs of the hills, and we came upon it suddenly. O'Ryan and I were taken into a barrack yard full of armed men and after our hands had been untied were locked in a dungeon. We were in absolute darkness and for some moments stood quite still and were silent. Then O'Ryan growled out a long string of oaths, which must have given him considerable trouble to collect, and ended by consigning himself to perdition for leaving his flask in his saddlebag.

A flood of daylight pouring into the darkness through the open doorway awoke me and almost blinded me too. I rose to my feet, but the two soldiers who entered had not come for me. They shook O'Ryan, who, after a few sleepy grunts, stood up, very wide awake indeed.

"Wanted so soon?" he said.

"Good! Far better than long waiting," he said, and he shook hands with me.

The next moment he was gone. The door closed and was locked again, and I was alone. Perhaps an hour elapsed before the door opened again. A soldier entered and placed on the floor some food and a flagon of wine. I thanked him, and he saluted me. He waited until I had eaten some of the food and drunk the wine, with what relish I leave to the imagination, and then requested me to follow him. Outside a small guard received me, and I was taken across the barrack yard, which was full of life and business, to a building on the opposite side.

It must have been about noon when a body of warriors more imposing than any I had yet seen marched into the yard. The officer came to me.

"The princess holds council, and I am commanded to bring you before her," he said.

I inclined my head.

My journey to the council hall was through the streets, and many people, chiefly women and old men, had gathered to see me pass. We turned into a courtyard surrounded on three sides by massive stone buildings and, marching straight across, halted for a moment before gates which opened into a great hall. At each end of the building was a huge round window, but the lighting was insufficient, and the place was gloomy. The floor was of stone flags, worn a good deal, and indeed the whole edifice looked old. I know little of architecture, but although the style was common in Drussenland I have seen nothing like it elsewhere. Seated in the center of the hall on a platform was a woman surrounded by knights who were clad in steel—a goodly sight to look upon, if strange to such eyes as mine. Just below the platform on either side stood a dozen men in loose garments reaching from shoulder to heel, tied at the waist with a white sash, the ends of which fell to the ground. Each wore a white skullcap. They were all elderly men, and their hair and beards had been allowed to grow at will.

To say that the princess was the most beautiful woman my eyes had ever rested upon is hardly to describe her. The whole of Princess Daria's world allowed that she was the most beautiful of women, and the women of Drussenland are beautiful. Her warriors, from the highest knight to the humblest soldier, worshiped her and had sworn obedience to him who should win her for himself. My first impression was that she was fit to rule those who bowed before her. She looked queenly and their mistress. Seated in her chair of state, as I first saw her, she looked a princess; she looked what she was, the idol of her people, and she looked more, a woman a man could love.

Every eye was turned toward me as I advanced up the hall. Certainly never before had I been such a center of attraction. I saw O'Ryan standing at the foot of the platform between two soldiers, but as I approached he eluded their vigilance and, rushing toward me, fell on his knee and kissed my hand, whispering as he did so:

"Admit everything. It's our only chance."

Evidently I had to play a part of some sort. There was silence for some moments as I stood at the foot of the platform. The princess leaned forward in her seat to study me closely, and I tried to look unconscious of the sensation I caused.

He in the white robe and the silver girdle was the first to speak.

"Is it true what this man has told concerning you?" he said, pointing to O'Ryan.

"Sometimes man lie. What has he told concerning me?" I said.

"That suddenly, while he watched in the night, you came from the mountains quickly by a path unknown, which no man has traveled."

"It is true."

"Know you aught of us in Drussenland?"

"I know that war stays death among the hills."

"Naught else?"

"I know that Khrym looks down and is sorrowful, hiding his head with a cloud."

"The great Khrym shall be appeased tomorrow," he said. "Is it from Khrym you have come?"

He asked the question slowly.

"I have said that I came from the mountains. Has any man traversed the path I have traversed?"

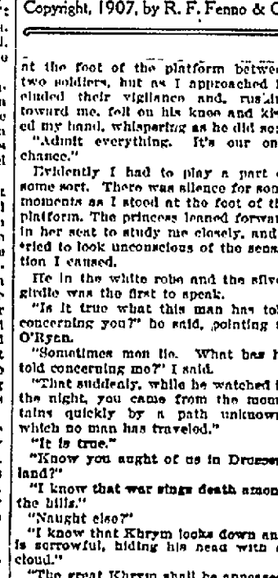

"And you have come to help us?"

"To all good."

"Tell us your mission that we may know you."

"From the mountains have I come to help you against your enemies. Be strong, and your princess shall sit upon the throne in Yadasara. Be faithful, be patient, and that which has been hidden for ages from your eyes shall once more sparkle in the sunlight in Drussenland."

My allusion to the treasure had an electrical effect upon my audience.

"ADMIT EVERYTHING. IT'S OUR ONLY CHANCE."

The princess rose to her feet, and the steel rang mightily as every sword leaped from its scabbard. The priests bowed low, and shout after shout made the massive walls echo again.

Only one man seemed unmoved at my statement—he who stood at the right hand of the princess.

"Has the priest sure proof that the knight so long expected has come?"

"The priests shall study before they speak certainly," Count Vasca."

"Remember," said the count, irritated at the priest's quiet answer and pointing to O'Ryan, "on the word of a foreign dog we are trusting."

"Nay, count, on the word of the knight himself."

It was the princess who spoke. It was the first time I had heard her speak, and her voice thrilled me.

"The princess has judged," answered the count. "What, then, shall be done to this foreign dog, who, knowing that this was the promised knight, sought to carry him to our enemies in Yadasara?"

A growl of hatred followed these words, and I saw that it was likely to go hard with O'Ryan.

"Stay!" I cried, raising my arm for silence. "Those who fight in a cause, faithful to that cause, are worthy of honor. These foreign dogs, valiant though they be, fight often in ignorance."

"To that man owes many a knight his overthrow," said the count.

"If he has been mighty in a wrong cause more mighty shall he be in a right one. He has told the truth of me and is therefore sacred to me and to my cause."

"Then I have not understood our laws," said Count Vasca in a voice which rang clear and loud through the hall. "Since the days when the mountains shut in our land no foreign dog has come to us, who are true Drussenlanders. Our enemies have called them in to slay us, but we who are true people hate them even with a more deadly hatred than those who, born in the land, bear arms against us in the pay of him who calls himself the king. Have not the priests, speaking as with the mouth of Khrym himself, commanded us to crush them as we would reptiles under our feet? Have the priests given us false counsel, or does this knight o'erstep his mission? Would Khrym speak in one way to the priests and after another manner to his messenger? Is it not strange, princess, that two commands concerning our enemies are given us?"

"Count Vasca speaks most truly," I said. "But man's judgment is bound by the things of today, and of the morrow he knows naught. Where man sees only an enemy today, Khrym may recognize one who shall tomorrow be his messenger. This foreign dog has been so marked out. Had it not been given to him to know me might he not have attacked me instead of welcoming me? If in his ignorance he wished to take me to those whom he served was he not faithfully fulfilling his duty as he understood it? The priests have well understood and have rightly spoken the law, but of this man they have not spoken."

"He is a foreign dog: it is enough," said the count, but no sound of approbation followed.

"I came from the mountains, and to the mountains I can return."

"The priests have not yet consulted," he said.

"Let them beware how they do so," I answered. "In their study lies the fate of Drussenland. This man is my armor bearer, my page and squire. Speak, princess. Judge betwixt Count Vasca and me. As your knight I claim this man, sacred to me and to my cause."

"Princess"—

"Pardon, count," she said, interrupting him. "Sir Knight, the man is yours."

"Study tonight," said the princess, turning to the priests. "Tomorrow after sunset shall we hold audience, and you shall declare if this lie be so long by you expected. Count, see this knight and his servant well attended, then come to me. I have a word for you in private."

For one moment the princess looked at me keenly and then turned. A door at the back of the platform was thrown open, and, followed by a guard of soldiers, she disappeared.

Count Vasca came to me.

"I am commanded to see you fittingly entertained," he said, and he led the way through one of the side doors, O'Ryan and I following, a small guard behind us, whether to honor us or to see that we did not escape I do not know.

We passed down several long corridors and then mounted a flight of stairs.

"Rest here until tomorrow," said the count, ushering us into a spacious apartment. "I will see that you are served."

In a short time food was brought us and wine in flagons.

BUYS BIG TIMBER TRACT.

Punxsutawney Man Gets 12,000 Acres In South.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 6.—Ward F. Brown of Punxsutawney, Pa., today purchased the Murchison boundry of virgin timber lands for $300,000 for 12,000 acres. The purchase was made through local attorneys from the Murchison Lumber Company, of which Joseph Keys of West Virginia is president.

Mr. Brown intends to build a large band mill and several miles of railway connecting with the C., C. & O. railway, and possibly to Asheville to connect with the Southern. The boundry includes the top of Mount Mitchell, 6,711 feet. After the timber is removed this land may become a part of the national forest, provision for which has just been made.

QUININE DOESN'T CURE BAD COLDS.

How to Really Break a Severe Cold and End All Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours

You will distinctly feel your cold breaking and all the grippe symptoms leaving after taking the very first dose.

It is a positive fact that Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours, until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

BOYS IN TROUBLE.

Broke Into Store at Udell and Are Arrested.

Constable John Nugent, of Mt. Pleasant, was called to Udell, Saturday afternoon, where he served a warrant on three boys, who are charged with breaking and entering the Udell store of the Mt. Pleasant Coal & Coke company. The boys were taken to Mt. Pleasant and imprisoned, pending a hearing which will be held before Squire L. S. Rhoades on Tuesday.

The exact amount of goods stolen amounted to a small sum, but the methods the lads used in gaining entrance to the store were unique.

A little lad, Willie Shiniski, scarcely six years of age was enticed to hide in a corner back of the chimney until the store manager, John Campbell, had locked up and gone home. The lad then opened the door, which he could just reach and admitted his comrades. The youthful thieves looted the store, taking pocket knives and other valuable articles.

The boys in going out cleverly allowed the door to re-lock and but for a few articles which were missing the store was in the same condition as before. Store Manager Campbell became suspicious and questioned little "Willie," on Saturday morning and secured a complete confession.

Warrants were then issued and the boys arrested and taken to Mt. Pleasant by Constable John Nugent.

"FLETCHERISM."

The habit of chewing one's food until it becomes almost liquified and swallowed involuntarily, and eating certain foods at certain times of the day is called "Fletcherism" after a man named Fletcher who advocates this method as a remedy for indigestion and stomach troubles. While one may get from this system the maximum amount of strength from the minimum amount of food, it is a question as to what extent this principle of living can be applied to the human race as a whole. It is an old and true saying, "What is one man's meat is another man's poison."

There is one thing sure, however, much less distress and much more assimilation of the body-building elements contained in every day food would be experienced by people with poor or impaired digestion if they would only believe what we tell them about Vinol.

There is no mystery about it, or misrepresentation. Vinol simply contains the necessary elements needed to reestablish a normal condition of the digestive system. There is no need of going into the scientific reasons why—it simply does it, that is all.

Thousands of genuine testimonials from reliable people prove this claim, and to further support the fact and prove our faith in what we say, we unhesitatingly declare that any one who will buy a bottle of Vinol for stomach disorder and malassimilation, will have their money returned without question if they are not satisfied that it has done them good. SCOTTDALE TOWN COUNCIL MEETS.

COUNCILMEN THREATEN FIGHT

Mr. Butler Says Citizens of Outlying District Will Compel Town to Pave Stoner Street—Paving Petition Accepted—Council Reorganizes.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, March 7.—The sidetracking of the ordinance to pave Fourth avenue was an incident in the meeting of Town Council, which every member attended last night. When the ordinance was passed some time ago there was no line set for taking bids and no orders for the engineer to prepare specifications for the paving. This bit of improvement cut in the Fourth Ward, ran against the objections of the people in the central part of town where several mud streets connect paved ones. A strong petition was presented for paving Stoner street last evening and this was accepted and an ordinance ordered drawn up for the work. Mr. Butler moved and Mr. Barclay seconded it that the engineer prepare specifications for paving Fourth avenue and that the proper officers advertise for bids for the same, returnable in 30 days from date. Voting in favor of the motion were G. P. Barclay, William Butler, W. T. Massey, W. L. Schaffer and President M. L. Hasness, and voting against the motion were, J. F. Hardy, H. G. Martz, J. M. Pyle and W. H. Sleighter. A. B. Findlay did not vote and under the rules of practice in the Council Findlay was counted with the majority, making the vote seven to five against the motion.

Mr. Barclay raised objection to this, contending that there was no original majority to add Mr. Findlay's vote to and that the motion was lost. Mr. Butler arose and said with some heat: "I give you all due notice, that the citizens of the Fourth Ward will have their rights."

J. W. Fitzimmons presented an ordinance repealing the Fourth avenue paving one, and Mr. Butler said that he would go into court to secure their rights. "You have notice, and you can go ahead," said he. "We know our rights." The same vote was recorded again and the ordinance repealing the Fourth Ward paving was passed on two readings. This was the most lively flurry in the session, although Mr. Butler announced after the reorganization that he will serve on no committees the rest of the year.

Mr. Sleighter presented the name of F. T. Jarrett as an auditor to fill the unexpired term of the late G. B. Shupe, while the name of W. M. Ritchie was also suggested. Berry, Barclay, Butler, Findlay, Massey, Pyle, Schaffer and Hasness voted for Ritchie, and Fitzimmons, Hardy, Martz and Sleighter for Jarrett. The President and Secretary were authorized to sign a petition to the court asking that Ritchie be appointed.

A representative of the Fire Department requested that a Bell phone be placed in the hose houses and Borough building. He asserted that the Tri-State seems to be trying as hard as they can to refrain from rendering any service for the firemen. One of the Councilmen said the same thing, and others nodded approvingly. It was suggested that as the Tri-State phones are free that perhaps this is the reason for the alleged laxity, and the Secretary was instructed to write to the Tri-State people and urge better attention to the Fire department.

A motion was passed that the secretary is to prepare and present to each Councilman before the meetings any ordinances that are to be brought up, as the Councilman would like to know them better before they get to the meetings. This may save some time usually spent in debate.

Several old trees along Chestnut street in front of properties of the Stauffer heirs and a property that C. S. Sipe is agent for, and a stump along Loucks avenue are to be removed as dangerous.

Treasurer Harry Laughrey reported the following balances: Sinking Fund, $16,592.98; Water fund, $83.41; Paving fund, $5,250.79; Garbage fund, $4,500, and General fund, $6,022.28.

Following receipts were reported: R. P. Ellis, Burgess, $56; W. E. Henry, weigh fees, $15.10, and Broadway National Bank, interest on Borough funds, $107.62. Tax Collector S. B. McMillan, presented the following report: 1908 taxes, $35.51; 1909 taxes, $84.19, and 1910 taxes, $165.38.

Borough Engineer J. B. Hogg suggested that profiles of the streets that have been put to grade may be furnished at a very low cost, say $10, and he was instructed to furnish the same at that cost.

Joe Balsamo has been putting up a wooden shed within the recently established fire limits and being called to account and the work being stopped pleaded ignorance of the law, and asked if he might cover the shed with iron. He was informed that Council could give him no help, that the ordinance must be obeyed and the building abated. Mr. Barclay said that the trouble with the Borough is too much ordinance and too little enforcement. He cited several instances of abuses existing that are covered by ordinance.

The question of slippery concrete pavements was brought up and a motion passed that C. M. Jarrett and the Archer & Craft Company be notified to have their pavements roughed. Many complaints have come to Council about people slipping and falling on these two particular sidewalks. They were also to be notified that the Borough will not stand responsible for any damages to any one falling on these named pavements.

Contractor Johnston asked for a grade on South Chestnut street, as he expects to build a house opposite T. H. Rutherford's, and the engineer will be asked to furnish the grade at once. Mrs. Mary McIntyre, who was paid damages on Market street, wanted an extra appropriation for raising her house, but this was refused.

There was some other minor business transacted, and the question of reorganization arose. Borough Attorney F. B. Folk said that this matter had been considered by about every borough attorney in the State and he believed that the big majority thought it was not necessary to reorganize for the 10 months until the new law goes into effect, but that it would be much safer perhaps to reorganize. This was effected by re-electing M. L. Hasness, President, and F. M. Newcomer, Secretary, with the other old officers. The Broadway Bank continues the depository and Harry Laughrey, Treasurer, each having new bonds ready to file.

The Man Who Abolished Mustard Plasters.

Ask A. A. Clarke.

The man who put mustard plasters out of business had to invent something better, for mustard plasters have been used for aches, pains and other afflictions for scores of years, and have given relief to millions.

But when J. A. Begy, the well-known chemist, of Rochester, N. Y., compounded, after years of experiment, a preparation which he named Begy's Mustarine, he gave to the world something so much quicker in action than mustard plasters, that medical authorities recognized its supremacy at once. Begy's Mustarine is now on sale in Connellsville by A. A. Clarke, who guarantees it to stop earache, toothache and headache.

Just rub it on. It is always ready, and nothing is better for neuralgia, cold in chest, pleurisy, bronchitis, lumbago, sore throat, stiffness and lameness. Is clean to use, and will not blister. 25 cents a box (equal to forty mustard plasters) and money back if not satisfied. Mail orders filled by J. A. Begy Co., Rochester, N. Y. 6

GREEN ROOM CHAT.

"Graustark"

"Graustark," the exquisite story of love and romance, which proved so big a success in the book world and has scored a theatrical offering, will be the attraction at the Soisson theatre, matinee and night, Tuesday, March 14. The tremendous popularity of George D. Baker's dramatization of McCutcheon's novel is readily enough guessed at when one stops to consider the absolute lack of melodramatic features, and the presence of so much clean wholesome dialogue and interesting stage pictures. The delightful love stories running throughout the play are bright and entertaining, and of as much interest to the male as the female sex.

A company unequalled in strength and ability is employed in the rendering of the different characters, and a feature of the entertainment is the magnificent scenic investment in use, with old world costuming to fit the period and locale.

CALDWELL MORROW CAME OF REVOLUTIONARY ANCESTRY.

Famous Auctioneer Born Near Scottdale Had Interesting Career and Was Known All Over the United States.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, March 7.—Col. Joseph Caldwell Morrow, died in the Passavant hospital, Pittsburg, Monday morning at 7 o'clock, from a complication of diseases, that grew in intensity, following an operation. Col. Morrow a few months before sustained an accident to one of his toes, which, although it gave him a great deal of trouble, was thought to be a minor injury. However, the toe at least gave him so much pain that he was taken to the hospital, and it was discovered that the member was broken. Gangrene set in and in an attempt to stay this the leg was amputated just above the knee. While the operation was successful and the progress seemed to have been arrested the patient's condition otherwise grew alarming and for several days his family feared that there was no hope of his recovery.

He leaves a widow, and two daughters and five sons. The daughters are, Maude and Mabel, and the sons, Emmett Roy, Clarence, Morrill Clyde, Joseph Caldwell, Jr., and Charles. Joseph, a lieutenant in the U. S. Army, a graduate of West Point, who was home on a 10 days furlough which ended Sunday, but this he had extended 10 days.

There are also left J. Sample Morrow, a brother, Mrs. Hester A. Anderson, and Mrs. Adelino Anderson of Scottdale, and Mrs. George C. McGill of Dawson.

Joseph Caldwell Morrow was a son of the late John C. and Elizabeth Sheppard Morrow, the formed dying some years ago and the latter last March. He was born in East Huntingdon township, Westmoreland county, December 31, 1851, and came of a distinguished line of ancestors. His great grandfather, Samuel Morrow, who was a native of County Tyrone, Ireland, immigrated to Adams county, Pa., prior to the Revolutionary war and subsequently removed to Westmoreland county. From him and two of his brothers, who fought in the war of the Revolution, descended the Morrow family widely scattered through this State and the western and southern central States. Samuel Morrow had a son, James Morrow, grandfather of J. Caldwell Morrow, who settled in South Huntingdon township, where he married and reared a family of thirteen children. One of these was John C. Morrow, the father of J. Caldwell Morrow. The former was born in 1825, and resided in Mt. Pleasant, and later in Scottdale. He married Elizabeth Sheppard, daughter of Paoli and Catherine (Tarr) Sheppard. Paoli Sheppard was a soldier and musician in the war of 1812, and a fife that he carried then became a heritage of J. Caldwell Morrow. Catherine Sheppard was a brilliant woman, a daughter of Hon. Gaspar Tarr, who was a son of a Revolutionary soldier and a relative of Christian Tarr, a Pennsylvania member of Congress. Paoli Sheppard was a son of Henry L. Sheppard of Massachusetts, a Revoultionary soldier, whose father was drowned in Boston bay.

Paoli Sheppard, a blacksmith by occupation, was noted for his extraordinary physical strength and great good nature. He was an industrious and prudent citizen. He stood over six feet in height and weighed 275 pounds. His sons were all large, fine looking men, and all followed their father's occupation. This strength has been characteristic of their descendents, Caldwell Morrow, being a large man, of engaging personality and with the genius for making and keeping friends.

John C. Morrow reared a family of four sons and four daughters. Paoli S. Morrow, a lawyer of Uniontown, was one of the sons. John C. Morrow was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and in politics a Democrat. He held all the township offices, and served as a Poor Director of Westmoreland county, from 1873 to 1876, and in 1885 was nominated for County Commissioner by a majority of four votes and was defeated by only a majority of four, when the remainder of the Republican ticket won by 800 majority.

J. Caldwell Morrow received his early education in the common schools of Westmoreland and Allegheny counties and Madison Normal school. From the age to 10 to 12 he lived with James Hutchinson, then rejoined his parents, who had moved to Buena Vista, Allegheny county. At the age of 16 he began teaching to procure the means to complete his education. He taught the first school in Scottdale borough, and after six years entered business as an auctioneer. He was also identified with a number of stores.

On September 18, 1873, he was married by Rev. N. P. Hacke to Amanda Walthour, daughter of Michael Walthour, a well known hotel keeper of Madison. In politics he was a strong Democrat, was a member of the Scottdale lodge of Odd Fellows, the Knights of the Maccabees and the Methodist Episcopal church. He was the first local editor of the Scottdale Tribune and was a correspondent for various newspapers throughout the country.

In 1872 he entered the business of auctioneering in which he gained fame and had held large auctions in probably every State of the Union. His principal line was real estate selling, and his lot sales were notable for their extent and the various States in which he held them.

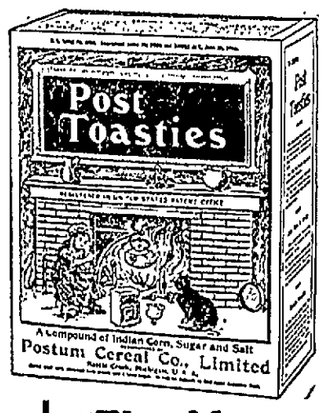

The funeral services will be held from his late residence on Negley avenue, Pittsburg, on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.
